The Church For The City

For learning about wisdom, understanding words of insight, for gaining instruction in prudent dealing, righteousness, justice, and equity; to teach shrewdness to the simple, knowledge and prudence to the young—to the wise, too, hear and gain in learning and the discerning acquire skill to understand a proverb and a figure, the words of the wise and their riddles and instruction. Hear, my child, your father's instruction, and do not reject your mother's teaching, for they are a fair garland for your head and pendant for your neck. My child, if sinners entice you, do not consent. If they say, "Come with us, let us lie in wait for blood; let us wantonly ambush the innocent like Sheol let us
